Forecast for Tuesday 25 Oct 2022

Weather: A mix of clear then brighter spells and a few scattered showers. Best of the bright spells expected early in the day, while showers will be light and isolated for the morning, before building during the afternoon. Cloud gradually thickening from the south late afternoon and through the evening, bringing an increasing risk of showers or longer periods of rain before midnight.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 700m: 80-90% during the morning, becoming 50% late afternoon, and virtually nil in late evening rain.

Low cloud and visibility: Generally good or very good by day becoming moderate or poor in showers and later rain, very poor within cloud with bases occasionally lowering 500m, particularly as showers push through, becoming extensive my mid-evening with patches lower down.
